Oinomelos is a new, innovative Greek company.

We stand out using the power of nature, the value of Greek history and Greek traditions as well as the benefits of creative cooperations.

After loads of research and teamwork, we have managed to create a unique, exclusive product, absolutely natural, with excellent taste and beneficial properties.

Inspired by small, everyday moments of delight & hospitality, by the joy of creativity and ancient heritage, we offer innovative products which make our heart a happier and healthier place.

From tradition a new cast of wine(d) is born!

In this context and drawing inspiration from customs, nutrition habits preferred by wise men, like Demokritos and Hippocrates, for longevity through the fertile land of our homeland, we created the Oinomelon of Oinomelos.

At the same time, taking care to satisfy the Greek public as much as possible and combining the desire to provide purely domestic products, we created SANGREAL.

The Oinomelon of Oinomelos, an excellent quality fragrance drink, a patented* elixir flavor, made exclusively with natural ingredients.

no sugar added

Both products have unique, sweet taste and are sugarfree.

The one with wonderful notes of honey, the other one with wonderful fruity flavor. The warm reception that the public reserved for Oinomelon of Oinomelos and SANGREAL, along with our own passion for quality, lead us to expand our corporate family and the network of our valuable colleagues.

We invite you to get to know our unique products and our company's values and it will be our joy to welcome you in the family of Oinomelos!

Two unique drinks are available on the market with recipes influenced by tradition, fun, the beneficial proposals of longevity by Demokritos and Hippocrates and the pure components of Greek land.

Teamwork, the Key to Success!

We cooperate exclusively with selected producers, since the excellent raw materials are essential for us. We carry out certified procedures and continuous strict product controls, and also bottling and storage controls. Oinomelos's privately-owned warehouses with ISO 22000 certification by TUV AUSTRIA Hellas, provide the guarantee for excellent disposal of its products.

We have expanded our collaborative cycle, with fine business and associates for serving and representing our Oinomelos, and our business family continues to evolve.

From tradition, a new cast of wine(d) is born!

We are expanding and selling our product on a wider scale, based on an organized plan and by detecting the most profitable prospects.

In this creative phase of development, we look for and welcome collaborators who share the same passion for teamwork and creative work, in order to expand our professional network.

From tradition, a new cast of wine(d) is born!

We came up with an idea...
We continued with a lot of enthusiasm that quickly became passion...

Strong passion that evolved into true love.
Now we want to share our love with the whole world.

Come and love the idea, the vision, and become part of our effort!

"Mead" us and come to work together!
